Terry Goddard Hosts Sun City Shred-a -Thon

(Sun City, Ariz. - April 21, 2006) Attorney General Terry Goddard and AARP Arizona hosted a Shred-a-Thon today at the Ventana Lakes Property Owners Yacht Club. Area residents brought in boxes and bags of old bills, bank statements and other records to be shredded.

Attached are two pictures from the event. Below is a caption for the pictures.

Attorney General Terry Goddard helps dump old documents into a container that was then deposited into a shredder truck. Goddard and AARP hosted a shred-a-thon today at the Ventana Lakes Property Owners Yacht Club. Since September 2005, more than 12,500 pounds of documents, papers and records have been shredded at these events across the state. Future shredding events are scheduled for Flagstaff on April 26 and Tucson on May 12.

West Valley residents interested in more information about consumer protection and civil rights can visit one of two Sun City area Satellite Offices at 10600 W. Peoria Avenue (Sun City) and 13815 Camino del Sol (Sun City West).
